

The Graduate School of Business and Leadership in collaboration with Nedbank Professional Banking invites you to a free interactive seminar Creativity and Creative Thinking in the Workplace

Facilitator

Graeme Butchart

Best-selling author and innovation coach

Theme

CHANNELLING SUCCESS THROUGH INNOVATION AND CREATIVITY

Date

Tuesday, 17 October 2017

Time

17h30 for 18h00 until 20h00

Venue

Graduate School of Business and Leadership Auditorium,
Westville Campus, UKZN

RSVP

Click here to confirm attendance
by no later than Friday, 13 October 2017

Graeme Butchart was born in London to Scottish parents with his family immigrated to South Africa in 1969 when he was 16.

He studied as an artist and sculptor at the Johannesburg School of Art and with his drawing skill began a career in advertising in the early 1970's.

Graeme is an innovation coach, lecturer, facilitator and speaker and thrives on helping people rediscover the intuitive, creative and communication abilities that he believes are in everyone

He has written and developed content for institutions such as the AAA School of Advertising, Vega Brand School, IMM, Bond University, Henley Business School and GIBS. He has lectured in 'Art Direction', 'Creative Development' and 'Communication'. He also lectures in 'Creativity and Innovation' as well as 'Self Mastery'.

He is also mentors the headmasters and teachers at two township primary schools; Walter Sisulu Primary School in Olievenhoutbosch and Lotus Gardens Primary School Atteridgeville.

For more on Graeme Butchart visit: www.graemebutchart.com