THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND LEADERSHIP CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO A DOCTORAL RESEARCH CLINIC

LITERATURE REVIEW AND NAVIGATION WORKSHOP

DATE: SATURDAY, 26 JULY 2025
TIME: 10H00 – 13H00

CLICK HERE TO RSVP

THIS WORKSHOP IS DESIGNED TO:

- Illuminate the purpose, architecture, and intellectual import of the literature review as a central element of the doctoral research process;
- Distinguish the typologies of literature—including empirical, theoretical, and methodological works—commonly employed in doctoral inquiry;
- Equip participants with advanced literature search techniques, encompassing the use of academic databases, Boolean logic, citation chaining, and grey literature exploration;
- Facilitate the development of an integrative, critical, and analytically sound literature review, with emphasis on scholarly voice, argumentation, and thematic cohesion.

FACILITATOR: DR NIKITA SINGH, HONORARY RESEARCH FELLOW, GSB&L

Dr Nikita Singh is an esteemed academic with extensive experience in facilitating doctoral-level research methodology workshops. Her pedagogical contributions span leading institutions, including the University of KwaZulu-Natal's GSB&L, Rhodes University Business School, IIE's Vega School of Design, and the University of the Witwatersrand's Centre for Local Economic Development (CENLED). Her work is widely recognized for its emphasis on research design excellence, epistemic clarity, and methodological rigour.
